

Afghan Freedom Support Act of 2002

This law authorized $1.7 billion for economic, humanitarian and development assistance in Afghanistan including $300 million to establish an enterprise fund to encourage private sector development, $300 million in drawdown authority for military and other security assistance. This bill also authorized $500 million per year--for the following two years--for the International Security Assistance Force (ISAF).

Senator Chuck Hagel (R-NE)

